The NSFA welcomes your application. All information requested is necessary for the selection process and will be kept confidential. No person will be denied scholarship funds on the basis of race, religion, age or gender.

The selection of the scholarship recipients(s) will be accomplished by using the point system for the six categories described on the application form. No decision will be based totally on financial need and/or academic performance.

Please understand that selection of a course of study that will lead to a career in public safety or health will give an applicant an extra 4 points, but does not mean the applicant will be automatically selected over other applicants. The selection will be based on total points so all applicants should strive to score well in all areas.*

 Some examples of people who have careers in public safety and health care are fire fighters, emergency medical technicians (basic and paramedic), nurses and national, state, county or municipal law enforcement officers (including DNR officers).*

If a scholarship is awarded to an applicant, the scholarship will be withdrawn if not used within one (1) year of the award date.

Scholarship funds will be paid directly to the institution or agency providing the program of study and will not be paid as reimbursement for expenditures already incurred by the recipient.

Applicants, teachers and parents may be contacted by one or more members of the independent judging panel (all non-NSFA members) if further information is needed regarding any part of the application.

The completed scholarship application package, as described above and below, must received by the NSFA Scholarship Committee by April 09, 2026 at the following address:
